Adverting to your letter G.21288/Cts. dated 13th May 1921 forwarding extract from the Proceedings of the Seventh Meeting of the Finance Committee held on Saturday the 28th April 1921 in regard to the abolition of the post of the -- Deputy Registrar of the Chief Court, I am directed to state that the Chief Court does not think that it can do without a Deputy Registrar. The office is by no means a sinecure, and the Registrar cannot do all the work and carry all the responsibility himself. In the absence of any statement of the reason which led to the suggestion that the Deputy Registrar is a superfluous officer it is difficult effectively to meet that suggestion; a mere statement of the work allotted to the office such as is found in the office Manual gives of course no real idea of the quantity to be done. The Judges do not consider that the Chief Court's office staff is more than sufficient to carry on the work and it has to be remembered that it is necessary to have an officer who can from time to time be entrusted with the duties of the Registrar and, if duly qualified, be appointed to fill short vacancies in the Siff's Courts.

I have the honor to be,
S i r,
Your most obedient servant,

B. S. M. 44
